ARTICLE IX
Election of Offices

Section 1 - Nominating Committee

At least sixty days prior to the Annual Meeting, the Region President, with the majority acceptance of the Club Board of Directors, shall appoint a Nominating committee of three members in good standing. The nominating committee shall submit a slate of nominees at the Annual Meeting for those offices to be vacated. No member may be nominated for an office without the member's permission in writing, such record of acceptance of nomination shall be obtained by the Chairman of the Nominating committee and made part of the records of the proceedings of that committee. No member of the Nominating committee may be placed on this slate of nominees.

Section 2 - Nominations by the Members

Five or more members in good standing may nominate a slate consisting of not more than two nominees for each office. Such nominations must be submitted to the Club Secretary, in writing and Signed by each member, with their PCA membership number indicated, and properly accompanied by the signed acceptance of the nominees, at least seven days prior to the Annual Meeting. Nominations made in this manner shall be announced at the Annual Meeting. No nominations will be received from the floor at any Annual Meeting.

Section 3 - Notice of Election

The Secretary shall provide the Club membership a notice of election and the names of all nominees for office within forty-five days following the Annual Meeting. The notice of election shall set an election date not less than twenty five days nor more than forty five days from the date of mailing, or other publication, of the notice of election.

Section 4 - Ballots

All balloting shall be by return US mail. Balloting procedures may be modified in the future by the Club Board of Directors to include electronic response in addition to, or in lieu of, US mail by a two-thirds vote of acceptance for a modified procedure that preserves the integrity of the vote. Votes shall be cast on a standard form supplied by the Club Secretary, indicating the member's choice of candidates and the offices for which they stand, and must be signed by the member. Any member shall be entitled to write in the name of any Club member in good standing as their choice for any office. A standard form to be used for balloting will be included with the notice of election, primarily distributed by-mail using the current e-mail address from the PCA National database. Those primary members without an e-mail address listed with the National Club will be forwarded a ballot by US mail. All completed ballots shall be individually mailed to the Club Secretary no later than the election date set forth in the notice of election. Unsigned ballots, ballots mailed subsequent to the election date, or ballots mailed to other than the Club Secretary shall be invalid.

Section 5 - Tellers

The Secretary and any two members designated by the Region President shall serve as Tellers and shall tabulate the votes cast within ten days of the election date. The member who receives the greatest number of votes cast for the office for which they are a candidate shall be declared elected.

Section 6 - Notice of Election Results

The Secretary shall notify the members of the election results, following the tabulation of ballots, by posting on the Club website prior to the close of the fiscal year, and then by publication in the next available issue of the Club newsletter. The names of the newly elected Regional Officers shall be forwarded to the National Club at this time.

ARTICLE X Meetings

Section 1 - Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Club shall be held each year at the usual time and location of the Regular Meeting in August. The location may be changed by the Region President with proper notification to the membership made by posting in the Region newsletter, website, and/or by email at least 45 days prior to the Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting shall be open to all Region members.

Section 2 - Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the members for the transaction of Club business shall be held on a more or less regular schedule and shall be called regular meetings. Regular meetings shall be open to all Region members to attend and observe. The fulfillment of the objectives of the Club should ordinarily require monthly meetings. This schedule may be set or modified by the Region President at any meeting or by majority vote of the Executive Council. The regular meeting schedule and location is to be published in the official Club newsletter. ~~The Club Secretary shall be responsible for submitting regular meeting minutes to the Webmeister for posting at least 5 days prior to the next scheduled regular meeting.~~ At any point in a regular meeting, the majority of the Executive Council or a majority of the entire Club Board of Directors may elect to recess into executive session where matters not appropriate for general discussion can be addressed in private.

Commented [JPC13]: This is Proposal 7 and is tied to Proposal 6

Section 3 - Special Meetings

Special meetings of the members may be called by the Region President or by a majority of the Executive Council. Special meetings shall be open to all Region members to attend and observe. At any point in a special meeting, the majority of the Executive Council or the entire Club Board of Directors may elect to recess into executive session where matters not appropriate for general discussion can be addressed in private.

Section 4 - Notice of Meetings

The Club Secretary shall provide notice of all meetings, specifying the time, date, place and purpose of any meeting to the appropriate members not less than fourteen days prior to a regular meeting, and not less than five days nor more than thirty days prior to a special meeting. Publication of time, date, place, and purpose for normally scheduled, recurring meetings in the Club newsletter and/or Club website shall be considered adequately provided notice.

ARTICLE XI Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Club shall be the calendar year.

ARTICLE XII Obligations and Indebtedness

Section 1 - Authority to Incur Obligations or Indebtedness

Only the elected Offices or persons authorized by the Executive Council to act on behalf of the Club shall incur any obligation or indebtedness in the name of the Club. All obligations or indebtedness incurred in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws shall be incurred solely as corporate obligations. No personal liability whatever shall attach to or be incurred by any member of Officer of the Club by reason of any such corporate obligation or liability. No elected Officer or other person authorized to act on behalf of the Club shall incur an obligation or indebtedness in the name of the Club in excess of previously approved budgeted limitations by a majority of the Executive Council.

Expenditures over $500 (or other amount as determined by a majority vote of the Club Board of Directors at any regular, annual, or special meeting) will require advance approval by a majority vote of the Club Board of Directors present at a regular, annual, or special meeting. In general, identifiable expenses to be incurred on the Club's behalf should be brought before the Club Board of Directors for prior approval when practical.

Section 2 - Unauthorized Obligations

No elected Officer or any person authorized to act on behalf of the Club shall incur any obligation or indebtedness in the name of the Club which is not for the general benefit of the entire membership of the Club nor shall the Executive Council or the Club Board of Directors approve the incurring of such obligation or indebtedness.

Section 3 - Personal Liability for Unauthorized Obligation

The incurring of any obligation or indebtedness in the name of the Club by any elected Officer or member in contravention of these bylaws shall be an ultra vires act. The person or persons responsible for such act or acts shall be personally liable, individually and collectively, to the Club in the amount equal to the obligation or indebtedness which the Club may be required to pay.

ARTICLE XIII

Surplus Funds

Any annual dues to the Club in addition to the National Club dues shall be adjusted at any Annual Meeting upon the recommendation of the Executive Council so that a working balance of no more than a desirable and necessary amount shall accumulate in the Club treasury. Funds accumulated in the Club treasury in excess of one and one-half times the previous year's total expenses will normally be considered excess and subject to reduction as deemed appropriate by a majority of the Club Board of Directors consistent with governing law.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendments to Bylaws

Section 1 - Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members assembled at any Annual meeting.

Section 2 - Proposed Amendments

The Executive Council, Club Board of Directors, or any 10 or more Club members in good standing may propose amendments to these bylaws. Amendments proposed by 10 or more members shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing and shall be signed by each member with their PCA membership number indicated.

Section 3 - Notice of Proposed Amendments

The Club Secretary shall notify the members of any proposed amendment submitted in accordance with Section 2 above ~~45 to 75 days prior to the within 60 days of any~~ Annual meeting, together with an explanation of the amendment and the need therefore by its sponsors. Notification of proposed bylaw amendments will be published in the Club newsletter, posted on the Club website, be made by email to the membership, and/or other method or methods deemed appropriate by a majority of the Club Board of Directors.

Section 4 - Proposed Amendment Voting

Votes for or against a proposed amendment to these bylaws shall be cast at an Annual meeting following proper notification of bylaws amendment. Voting shall be by voice vote, a show of hands, or other method acceptable to a majority of those in attendance at the Annual meeting. Approved amendments shall take effect immediately.

Section 5 - Tellers

The Secretary and any two members or Officers designated by the Region President shall serve as tellers and shall tabulate any written vote taken at an annual meeting and report the results before the conclusion of the meeting.

Section 6 - Notice of Vote Results

The Club Secretary shall promptly give notice to the membership of any vote on a proposed amendment in the first available issue of the Club newsletter and/or on the Club website following the voting.
